

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

DANIEL RAMIREZ MEDINA,

Plaintiff,

v.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND
SECURITY, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. C17-0218RSM

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction. Dkt. #122. The Court held oral argument on May 1, 2018, after which the Court directed the parties to submit additional briefing. Dkt. #128. The parties have since submitted that briefing. Dkts. #130 and #131. Plaintiff now seeks an Order enjoining Defendants from terminating his DACA status and work authorization pending adjudication on the merits of his case, and enjoining Defendant USCIS from continuing to accuse him of being a gang member in any further proceedings. Dkt. #130. Defendants oppose the motion, arguing that this Court lacks authority to hear and/or grant Plaintiff's request for new relief, and that Plaintiff's request goes too far beyond simply preserving the status quo. Dkt. #131. For the reasons discussed herein, the Court disagrees with Defendants and GRANTS Plaintiff's motion.

II. BACKGROUND

A. Plaintiff Daniel Ramirez Medina

Plaintiff, Daniel Ramirez Medina, is 25 years old, and the father of an American-born son. Dkt. #78, Ex. O at ¶¶ 2 and 8. Mr. Ramirez was brought to this country from Mexico in or around 2003, when he was approximately 10 years old. Id. at ¶ 2. Mr. Ramirez alleges that he moved from California to Washington to obtain more lucrative employment to better support his son.<sup>1</sup> Id. at ¶ 10.

In late 2013, Mr. Ramirez first applied for deferred action and work authorization pursuant to the government's "Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals" ("DACA") policy. Id. at 3. As part of this process, Mr. Ramirez provided the government with his birth certificate, school records, and information about where he lived, and was required to attend a biometrics appointment so that United States Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") could take his fingerprints and photographs. Dkt. #78, Ex. O at ¶ 3. Mr. Ramirez was granted deferred action and work authorization in 2014. Id. at ¶ 6.

In 2016, Mr. Ramirez reapplied for DACA status, and again was granted deferred action and work authorization. Id. at ¶ 9. As part of this process, Mr. Ramirez received an approval notice (the "2016 DACA Approval Notice") informing him that his request for deferred action had been granted. Id. The 2016 DACA Approval Notice provided that "[u]nless terminated, this decision to defer removal action will remain in effect for 2 years" and is valid until May 4, 2018. Dkt. #78, Ex. G. The 2016 DACA Approval Notice also informed Mr. Ramirez that his deferred action could be terminated if he engaged in "[s]ubsequent criminal activity." Id.

<sup>1</sup> The government asserts that he told agents he moved from California to get away from the gangs. Dkt. #78, Ex. H at 3.

1 On February 10, 2017, at approximately 9:00 a.m., a team of Immigration and Customs 2 Enforcement (“ICE”) agents arrested Mr. Ramirez’s father outside of the apartment where Mr.
3 Ramirez, his father, and his brother were then living. Dkt. #78, Ex. O at ¶ 14. ICE agents entered
4 the apartment.<sup>2</sup> Id. The agents found Mr. Ramirez asleep, woke him up, and began to question
5 him. Id. at ¶ 15. Mr. Ramirez provided the agents with his name and birthdate, and told them
6 that he was born in Mexico. Mr. Ramirez was then placed in handcuffs. Id.

8 According to Mr. Ramirez, he told the ICE agents repeatedly that he had a legal work
9 permit, but the ICE agents refused to release him. Id. at ¶ 17. Mr. Ramirez’s father also 10 repeatedly informed the ICE agents that Mr. Ramirez had a legal work permit, and questioned 11 why he was being detained. Dkt. #78 at ¶ 46.

13 Mr. Ramirez was then transported to an ICE holding facility in Tukwila, Washington. Id.
14 at ¶ 47. At the holding facility, the ICE agents confiscated Mr. Ramirez’s work permit. Id. at ¶ 15 48. That permit was marked with a “C33” designation, which identified Mr. Ramirez as a DACA
16 recipient with work authorization. Dkt. #78, Ex. F at 112. The ICE agents also fingerprinted
17 Mr. Ramirez and used this information to access his records, which revealed that Mr. Ramirez
18 has no criminal history, had twice been granted DACA status, and possessed valid employment
19 authorization through May 4, 2018. Dkt. #78 at ¶ 49. Defendants refused to release Mr. Ramirez
20 even after they confirmed his DACA status. Id. at ¶ 50. Defendants subsequently cited Mr.
21 Ramirez’s receipt of DACA as evidence of his “illegal” status in this country. Id., Ex. H at 3.

24 According to Mr. Ramirez, the ICE agents began to interrogate him, asking him numerous 25 times whether he was in a gang, which he denied, and whether he had ever known anyone who

27 <sup>2</sup> Consent to enter the apartment appears to be in dispute. Mr. Ramirez asserts that he is unaware 28 of any consent provided by his father. Dkt. #78 at ¶ 44. The Record of Deportable/Inadmissible Alien form filled out by Officer Hicks states that consent was provided. Dkt. #78, Ex. H at 3.

1 was a gang member. Dkt. #78 at ¶ 51. Mr. Ramirez told the agents that although that he knew 2 students who had attended middle school and high school with him who were in gangs, he was 3 not gang affiliated and never had been. Id. The ICE agents also asked Mr. Ramirez about the 4 tattoo on his forearm (which consisted of the words “La Paz-BCS” and a nautical star). Id. at ¶ 5 52. Mr. Ramirez got the tattoo when he was 18 years old. La Paz is Mr. Ramirez’s birthplace,
6 and “BCS” stands for Baja California Sur, the region in which La Paz is located. Id. The agents
7 apparently insisted to Mr. Ramirez that it was a gang tattoo, which he also denied. Id. at 53.

9 Prior to being transferred to the Northwest Detention Center, the ICE agents asked Mr.
10 Ramirez if there were any gangs with which he would like to avoid being placed for his safety.
11 Id. at ¶ 54. Mr. Ramirez again stated that he had no gang affiliation and would not have problems
12 being placed with anyone. Dkt. #78 at ¶ 54. Upon continued questioning, Mr. Ramirez
13 ultimately indicated that if he had to be placed with any group, he would prefer “the Paisas.” Id.
14 Mr. Ramirez understands the colloquial use of “Paisas” to mean Mexicans, and was attempting 15 to communicate that if given the option, he would prefer to be placed with other Mexicans. Id.

17 Mr. Ramirez was then transferred to Northwest Detention Center, where he remained in 18 custody for the next 47 days. Id. at ¶ 55. While at the Detention Center, Defendants classified 19 Mr. Ramirez as a “medium-high” security risk. Id. at ¶ 59. Mr. Ramirez requested that he be 20 reclassified because he was not, and never had been, gang affiliated. Id. The request was denied.
21 Id. During his detention, Mr. Ramirez asserts that he feared for his safety because many of the 22 other inmates believed he was affiliated with a gang due to the statements made after his arrest.
23 Id.

1 Defendants issued a Notice to Appear (“NTA”) on February 10, 2017. Dkt. #78, Ex. I.
2 Defendants assert that Mr. Ramirez’s DACA status terminated on the day the NTA was issued.
3 Dkts. #78 at ¶¶ 60 and 61, Ex. J and #90 at 7.

4 USCIS then sent Mr. Ramirez a Notice of Action (“NOA”) dated February 17, 2017. Dkt.
5 #78, Ex. J. The NOA states that Mr. Ramirez’s deferred action and employment authorization
6 terminated on the date the NTA was issued, and provides that “[a]n appeal or motion to 7 reopen/reconsider this notice of action may not be filed.” Id.

9 In the meantime, on February 13, 2017, Mr. Ramirez filed a Petition for Habeas Corpus 10 in this Court. Dkt. #1. This Court ultimately declined to order the release of Mr. Ramirez and 11 directed him to file a motion in Immigration Court. Dkt. #69. Pursuant to that Order, Mr.
12 Ramirez filed such motion and received a bond hearing in Immigration Court on March 28, 2017.
13 Dkt. #78 at ¶ 78. Mr. Ramirez was released on bond on March 29, 2017. Id., Ex. V.

15 On April 25, 2017, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint in this matter. Dkt. #78.
16 In that Complaint, Plaintiff dropped his habeas claim, and alleged claims against several federal 17 agencies, as well as individual officers. Id. The claims against the individual Defendants have 18 since been dismissed. Dkt. #112. Against the remaining federal agencies, collectively, Plaintiff
19 asserted the following claims: 1) violations of the Administrative Procedures Act (“APA”)
20 (Counts One and Two); and 2) violation of the Fifth Amendment (Count 8).<sup>3</sup> Dkt. #78 at ¶¶ 85-21 105 and 148-150.
22
24
25

27 <sup>3</sup> Counts Three through Seven were Bivens claims brought against the individually-named 28 Defendants. Dkt. #78 at ¶¶ 92-147. As noted above, those claims have since been dismissed.
Dkt. #112.

1 The federal agency Defendants then filed a second motion to dismiss, which this Court
2 denied on November 8, 2017. Dkt. #116. Defendants filed their Answer to the Second Amended
3 Complaint on December 6, 2017. Dkt. #119.

4 On January 17, 2018, an Immigration Judge issued an Order of Removal directing 5 Plaintiff's return to Mexico. See Dkt. #122-1, Ex. B at ¶ 2.

7 On February 6, 2018, Plaintiff filed the instant motion. On the day the government's 8 opposition to the motion was due, February 26, 2018, the United States District Court for the 9 Central District of California certified a class that includes all DACA recipients "who, after 10 January 19, 2017, have had or will have their DACA grant and employment authorization
11 revoked without notice or an opportunity to respond, even though they have not been convicted
12 of a disqualifying criminal offense." Inland Empire–Immigrant Youth Collective v. Nielsen, 2018
13 WL 1061408, at *22 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 26, 2018) ("Inland Empire II"). In the same order, the court
14 preliminarily enjoined "Defendants' decisions after January 19, 2017 to terminate the DACA
15 grants and EADs of class members, without notice, a reasoned explanation, or an opportunity to 16 respond prior to termination," and ordered that "Defendants immediately will restore those 17 individuals' DACA and EADs, subject to their original date of expiration." Inland Empire, 2018
18 WL 1061408 at *22. Mr. Ramirez is part of that class.

21 On or about April 3, 2018, Defendants issued a Notice to Mr. Ramirez confirming the 22 restoration of his DACA status and work authorization, and stating that his DACA status and 23 work authorization had been extended from May 5, 2016, to May 5, 2018. Dkt. #126-1, Ex. B.
24 On the same date, Defendant USCIS issued a Notice of Intent to Terminate ("NOIT") Mr.
25 Ramirez's DACA status, stating:
26
27
28

1 USCIS has reviewed your deferred action pursuant to procedures outlined in 2 the USCIS DACA Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) regarding DACA termination. Specifically, page 138 of the DACA SOP states:

3 If after consulting with ICE [U.S. Immigration and Customs
4 Enforcement], USCIS determines that exercising prosecutorial
5 discretion after removal has been deferred under DACA is not
6 consistent with the Department of Homeland Security's
7 enforcement priorities, and ICE does not plan to issue an NTA, the 8 officer should refer the case to HQSCOPS [Headquarters Service
9 Center Operations Directorate], through the normal chain of 10 command, to determine whether or not a NOIT [Notice of Intent to Terminate] is appropriate. If it is determined that the case warrants final termination, the officer will issue DACA 603 - Termination Notice [Enforcement Priority, Not Automatically Terminated] from the Appendix I.

11 USCIS has consulted with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement
12 (ICE) and has determined that exercising prosecutorial discretion to defer
13 removal action in your case is not consistent with DHS's enforcement
14 priorities. As you were already issued an NTA by ICE on February 14, 2017, 15 subsequent to your grant of DACA, further referral to ICE for consideration of NTA issuance is unnecessary. DHS records show that on January 17, 2018, an immigration judge ordered you removed to Mexico.

16 Additionally, a review of Form 1-213, Record of Deportable Alien, reveals 17 that during an encounter with ICE on February 10, 2017, you admitted to 18 previously associating with the "Sureno's" criminal street gang in the state of 19 California, and to currently associating with the "Paizas" criminal street gang
20 in the state of Washington. While DHS email records indicate that you 21 disputed in immigration court that you are a gang member and that the 22 immigration judge accepted this claim, you nonetheless admitted in 23 immigration court that gangs may identify you as a rival gang member because of your tattoo and you admitted that you withdrew your appeal from placement in a Level 2 gang population at the Norwest Detention Center because you wanted to remain with the gang population. Gang association poses a significant public safety risk. Therefore, it appears that you do not warrant favorable consideration for DACA.

24 In light of your statements relating to gang association, DHS' determination
25 that you are an enforcement priority, and the fact that ICE has informed
26 USCIS that it is actively pursuing your removal and you were recently
27 ordered removed, USCIS will not contemporaneously conclude that removal 28 action should continue to be deferred in your case. Accordingly, USCIS has determined, in its unreviewable discretion, that you do not warrant a favorable exercise of prosecutorial discretion.

1 Dkt. #126-1, Ex. C.

2 B. The DACA Program

4 On June 15, 2012, former Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano announced
5 the creation of the DACA program. Dkt. #78, Ex. C (“Napolitano Memo”). In her memorandum,
6 Ms. Napolitano provided DHS with guidelines regarding the exercise of its prosecutorial 7 discretion to focus enforcement efforts away from low priority cases, including individuals who 8 came to the United States as children. Id. The Napolitano Memo listed the following five criteria
9 that must be satisfied before an individual can be considered for an exercise of prosecutorial
10 discretion under DACA:
11

- 12 • came to the United States under the age of sixteen;
- 13 • has continuously resided in the United States for a least five years
14 preceding the date of this memorandum and is present in the United 15 States on the date of this memorandum;
- 16 • is currently in school, has graduated from high school, has obtained a 17 general education development certificate, or is an honorably discharged
18 veteran of the Coast Guard or Armed Forces of the United States;
- 19 • has not been convicted of a felony offense, a significant misdemeanor 20 offense, multiple misdemeanor offenses, or otherwise poses a threat to 21 national security or public safety; and
- is not above the age of thirty.

22 Dkt. #78, Ex. C. Individuals must also pass a criminal background check to be eligible for 23 DACA. Id. at 2.

24 Under the DACA program, deferred action is provided for a renewable period of two 25 years, and DACA recipients are eligible to apply for work authorization during the period of 26 deferred action. Id. at 3; see also 8 C.F.R. § 274a.12(c)(14) (permitting USCIS to establish a 27 specific period for employment authorization for aliens who have been granted deferred action).
28

1 The National Standard Operating Procedures (“SOP”) issued by DHS describe the 2 procedures to be followed in adjudicating DACA requests and terminating DACA status. See
3 Dkts. #78, Ex. F (“DACA National Standard Operating Procedures (“SOP”)”, dated April 4, 4 2013) and #109-1, Ex. A (excerpts of DACA SOP, dated August 28, 2013). The SOP states that 5 it is applicable to all personnel performing adjudicative functions and the procedures to be 6 followed are not discretionary. Dkt. #78, Ex. F at 16.

8 Pertinent to the instant matter, are the procedures applying to criminal offenses or public 9 safety concerns that have been deemed to be Egregious Public Safety Concerns (“EPS”). The 10 SOP defines EPS as:

11 Any case where routine systems and background checks indicate that an 12 individual is under investigation for, has been arrested for (without 13 disposition), or has been convicted of, a specified crime, including but not 14 limited to, murder, rape, sexual abuse of a minor, trafficking in firearms or 15 explosives, or other crimes listed in the November 7, 2011, memorandum
16 entitled Revised Guidance for the Referral of Cases and Issuance of Notices
17 to Appear (NTAs) in Cases Involving Inadmissible and Removable Aliens.

18 Dkt. #109-1, Ex. A. The November 7, 2011, memorandum lists “known or suspected street gang 19 members” as one of many EPS cases. Dkt. #78, Ex. F, Appendix B at 4.

20 Chapter 14 of the SOP, entitled “DACA Termination,” provides as follows:

21 If disqualifying criminal offenses or public safety concerns, which are 22 deemed to be EPS, arise after removal has been deferred under DACA, the 23 officer should forward the case to the BCU DACA Team who, in turn, will 24 refer the case to ICE and follow the handling procedures outlined in the 25 November 7, 2011 NTA memorandum for EPS cases. If ICE accepts the 26 case, the issuance of the NTA will result in the termination of DACA. Upon 27 the filing of the NTA with EOIR, the individual’s employment authorization 28 terminates automatically.

If ICE does not accept the case or if the disqualifying criminal offense is non-
EPS per the November 7, 2011 NTA memorandum, the BCU DACA Team should reopen the case on Service motion and issue a Notice of Intent to Terminate. The individual should be allowed 33 days to file a brief or statement contesting the grounds cited in the Notice of Intent to Terminate.

1 The Notice of Intent to Terminate should include a statement that if deferred
2 action for childhood arrivals is terminated, any associated employment
3 authorization granted during the period of deferred action will be terminated 4 for cause.

5 If the adverse grounds are not overcome, or no response is received to the 6 Notice of Intent to Terminate, the officer should prepare a Termination
7 Notice and seek supervisory review of the draft Termination Notice prior to 8 issuance. The Termination Notice should indicate that the individual's 9 employment authorization is terminated for cause as of the date of the notice.
10 Consequently, the Class of Admission (COA) code in CIS should be changed
11 to DAT (Deferred Action Terminated) for employment verification purposes.
12 Additionally, the BCU DACA Team should forward the individual's name to 13 ERO.

14 If national security concerns arise after removal has been deferred under 15 DACA, the case should go through the CARRP process, per established
16 CARRP protocols.

17 Dkt. #78, Ex. F at 133.<sup>4</sup>

18 Mr. Ramirez alleges that the revocation of his DACA status and employment
19 authorization violated the Administrative Procedures Act ("APA") because the revocation did 20 not comport with established procedures, and was therefore arbitrary. See Dkt. #78 at ¶¶ 85-91.

21 Mr. Ramirez also alleges that the revocation of his DACA status and employment authorization

22 <sup>4</sup> "BCU" is defined as "Background Check Unit." Dkt. #78, Ex. F at 6. "BCU DACA Team" 23 is defined as:

24 A specialized team within the BCU that specifically reviews and adjudicates 25 issues of criminality arising from DACA requests. The team may consist of 26 Immigration Services Officers, as well as officers assigned to CARRP, NTA
27 issuance, and Triage duties, and the analysts who support them.

28 Id. "CARRP" is defined as:

Controlled Application Review and Resolution Program. This program outlines the process to identify, record, and adjudicate applications/petitions/requests where a National Security concern is identified.

Id. at 8.

1 violated the APA because those actions violated his rights under the Due Process Clause of the 2 Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution. Dkt. #78 at ¶¶ 94-105 and 3 ¶¶ 148-150.

4 C. DACA Decisions In the Ninth Circuit

5 Legal challenges involving DACA have been filed in federal district courts throughout 6 the country. One such case is a set of challenges to the DACA program's rescission that was 7 filed in September 2017 in federal district court in California. See Regents of the Univ. of Cal.
8 v. U.S. Dep't of Homeland Sec., 279 F. Supp. 3d 1011, 1026 (N.D. Cal. 2018). Following 9 challenges before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court regarding the 10 scope of the administrative record in that case, the District Court issued a preliminary injunction.
11 279 F. Supp.3d at 1036–37. The injunction directed DHS to resume accepting applications for 12 the renewal of DACA benefits, although it did not require the agency to accept new DACA
13 applications or to afford current DACA beneficiaries advance parole. See id. at 1048–49.

14 In addition, District Courts in the Ninth Circuit have addressed challenges to the 15 rescission of DACA status for various individuals. In Inland Empire-Immigrant Youth
16 Collective, et al. v. Duke, et al., 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 203307 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 20, 2017), the 17 District Court addressed a motion for preliminary injunction stemming from the Plaintiff Jesus 18 Alonso Arreola Robles' termination of DACA status. Like the instant Plaintiff, Mr. Robles had 19 been granted DACA status and was working with a valid work permit. At the time Mr. Robles
20 was stopped by ICE agents, he informed the agents of his status, but he was arrested anyway.
21 Inland Empire, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 203307, *4. Mr. Robles was then issued a Notice to 22 Appear, initiating removal proceedings and charging him as removable due to his presence in the 23 United States without admission under the INA. Mr. Robles was not charged with any crime.
26
27
28

1 He received a bond hearing and was released from immigration detention. Shortly thereafter,
2 Plaintiff received a Notice of Action from USCIS notifying him that his DACA and EAD were 3 “terminated automatically as of the date [his] NTA was issued.” Inland Empire, 2017 U.S. Dist.
4 LEXIS 203307, *5.

5 After determining that it had jurisdiction to hear the challenge, the District Court
6 examined the merits of Plaintiff’s claims. The Court agreed with Plaintiff that his case was 7 analogous to that which the Supreme Court considered in Judulang v. Holder, 565 U.S. 42, 55, 8 132 S. Ct. 476, 181 L. Ed. 2d 449 (2011). Inland Empire, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 203307, *16.

9 The Court explained:
10

11 In Judulang, the Supreme Court considered a Board of Immigration Appeals 12 (“BIA”) rule governing eligibility for a form of relief – suspension of 13 deportation – which, like DACA, was not provided for in the INA and was 14 therefore discretionary. See Judulang, 565 U.S. at 46-47. Despite this 15 discretionary quality, the Supreme Court nonetheless determined that the 16 rules applied by the agency must reflect reasoned decisionmaking, 17 admonishing that “[a] method for disfavoring deportable aliens that bears no
18 relation to these matters – that neither focuses on nor relates to an alien’s 19 fitness to remain in the country – is arbitrary and capricious.” Id. at 55. The 20 BIA’s rule was invalidated because it was based on “a matter irrelevant to the 21 alien’s fitness to reside in this country,” which indicated that “the BIA ha[d]
22 failed to exercise its discretion in a reasoned manner.” Id. at 53.

23 Inland Empire, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 203307, *16-17. The District Court found that Mr. Robles
24 had put forth a compelling argument that, like the BIA’s invalidated rule in Judulang, the 25 decision to automatically terminate his DACA and EAD based on the issuance of an NTA failed
26 the requirements of the APA.

27 The District Court further held that while agencies are free to change course and depart
28 from a prior decision, they are “obligated to supply a reasoned analysis for the change.” Id. at *20 (citation omitted). The Court agreed “USCIS’s one-sentence explanation” fails to “provide ‘good reasons’ for the agency’s change in position, as required by the APA.” Id. at *21. “As

1 Plaintiff accurately concludes, given that all DACA recipients are necessarily removable due to 2 their unauthorized presence, “[t]he agency’s reliance on an NTA citing [Plaintiff’s] presence
3 without admission simply fails to explain, much less justify, the agency’s decision to reverse
4 course and terminate his DACA.”” Inland Empire, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 203307, *21-22
5 (citations omitted; emphasis in original).

7 The District Court then found that the deprivation of Plaintiff’s earnings and job
8 opportunities caused by the loss of his DACA and EAD constitutes irreparable harm, that the 9 harms that would be experienced by Plaintiff and his family if this motion were denied outweigh 10 any potential injury to Defendants, and that the public has a strong interest in ensuring that the 11 nation’s immigration laws are robustly and fairly enforced. Inland Empire, 2017 U.S. Dist.
12 LEXIS 203307, *29-32. As a result the District Court issued a preliminary injunction, enjoining
13 USCIS’s decision to terminate the plaintiff’s status under the Deferred Action for Childhood
14 Arrivals program, and enjoining the termination of the plaintiff’s employment authorization. Id.
15 at *32.
16

17 As noted above, on February 26, 2018, the United States District Court for the Central 18 District of California then certified a class that includes all DACA recipients “who, after January
19 19, 2017, have had or will have their DACA grant and employment authorization revoked
20 without notice or an opportunity to respond, even though they have not been convicted of a 21 disqualifying criminal offense.” Inland Empire–Immigrant Youth Collective v. Nielsen, 2018
22 WL 1061408, at *22 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 26, 2018) (“Inland Empire II”). In the same order, the court
23 preliminarily enjoined “Defendants’ decisions after January 19, 2017 to terminate the DACA
24 grants and EADs of class members, without notice, a reasoned explanation, or an opportunity to 25 respond prior to termination,” and ordered that “Defendants immediately will restore those 26
27
28

1 individuals' DACA and EADs, subject to their original date of expiration." Inland Empire, 2018
2 WL 1061408 at *22. Mr. Ramirez is part of that class.

3 III. DISCUSSION

4 A. Jurisdiction

5 As an initial matter, the Court examines its jurisdiction to hear this matter. Defendants
6 argue that this Court lacks jurisdiction to review the NOIT issued to Mr. Ramirez because it does 7 not constitute a final agency action. Dkt. #131 at 3-9. Plaintiff responds that Defendants'
8 arguments are misplaced because: 1) he does not seek review of a final agency action; 2) even if 9 he was seeking such review there is an exception allowing his challenge; and 3) he is entitled to 10 proceed on his Due Process claims separate and apart from his APA claims. Dkt. #130 at 9-12.
11 The Court agrees with Plaintiff.
12

14 First, the Court agrees that this motion does not raise an issue of finality because Plaintiff
15 does not seek to challenge the issuance of the NOIT itself. Rather, he seeks to enjoin Defendants 16 from relying on the allegations that he is a gang member, or is gang affiliated, in any proceedings.
17 Dkt. #130 at 9. Indeed, this Court is not making any evaluation as to whether USCIS is justified
18 in terminating Mr. Ramirez's DACA status.
19

20 Further, even if finality was an issue, the Court agrees with Plaintiff that this Court has 21 jurisdiction to review Plaintiff's Due Process claim. Hata v. United States, 23 F.3d 230, 233 (9th
22 Cir. 1994) (recognizing that even where administrative claims are not typically reviewable, 23 "review of constitutional claims may still be available upon a sufficiently pleaded allegation of 24 a serious constitutional violation 'going to the heart of the administrative determination.'")
25 (citations omitted)). As further discussed below, the Court finds that Plaintiff has pled a colorable
26 Due Process claim.
27
28

1 Defendants also object to the Court's authority to issue relief that was not requested in 2 the operative Complaint. Dkt. #131 at 3-5. The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals has explicitly 3 held that, in order to grant injunctive relief:

4 there must be a relationship between the injury claimed in the motion for 5 injunctive relief and the conduct asserted in the underlying complaint. This 6 requires a sufficient nexus between the claims raised in a motion for 7 injunctive relief and the claims set forth in the underlying complaint itself.
8 The relationship between the preliminary injunction and the underlying 9 complaint is sufficiently strong where the preliminary injunction would grant
"relief of the same character as that which may be granted finally." De Beers
Consol. Mines, 325 U.S. at 220. Absent that relationship or nexus, the district court lacks authority to grant the relief requested.

10 Pac. Radiation Oncology, LLC v. Queen's Med. Ctr., 810 F.3d 631, 636 (9th Cir. 2015). Here
11 the Court finds that nexus exists. In Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint, Plaintiff sets forth 12 a number of factual allegations related to the government's assertions that he is gang-affiliated.
13 See Dkt. #78 at ¶¶ 24, 25, 46, 51, 53, 54, 63-77, 80, 82 and 84. In Count One, Plaintiff asserts 14 that Defendants have violated the APA by asserting that he is gang-affiliated. Dkt. #78 at ¶ 89.
15 In Count Two, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' continued assertions that he is gang-affiliated 16 are unconstitutional. Id. at ¶ 98.

17 Defendants also assert that Plaintiff's challenges to the NOIT process are improper 18 because they attempt to gain an advisory opinion and influence Defendants' non-final action.
19 Dkt. #131 at 5. However, this misconstrues Plaintiff's request for relief in this action. As noted
20 above, this Court is not making any evaluation as to whether USCIS is justified in terminating 21 Mr. Ramirez's DACA status. Thus, given the Court's "broad powers and wide discretion to 22 frame the scope of appropriate equitable relief" when issuing a preliminary injunction to preserve 23 the status quo", Sec. & Exch. Comm'n v. United Fin. Grp., Inc., 474 F.2d 354, 358-59 (9th Cir.
25
26
27
28

1973), the Court finds it has the authority to issue a preliminary injunction in this matter, as further discussed below.

B. Standard of Review for Preliminary Injunctions

In determining whether to grant a preliminary injunction, this Court considers: (1) the likelihood of the moving party's success on the merits; (2) the possibility of irreparable injury to that party if an injunction is not issued; (3) the extent to which the balance of hardships favors the moving party; and (4) whether the public interest will be advanced by the injunction. See Miller v. Cal. Pac. Med. Ctr., 19 F.3d 449, 456 (9th Cir. 1994); Los Angeles Mem'l Coliseum Comm'n v. Nat'l Football League, 634 F.2d 1197, 1201 (9th Cir. 1980). The Ninth Circuit has often compressed this analysis into a single continuum where the required showing of merit varies inversely with the showing of irreparable harm. See Prudential Real Estate Affiliates, Inc. v. PPR Realty, Inc., 204 F.3d 867, 874 (9th Cir. 2000). Thus, Plaintiff will be entitled to preliminary relief if it is able to show either: (1) probable success on the merits and the possibility of irreparable harm; or (2) the existence of serious questions going to the merits and a fair chance of success thereon, with the balance of hardships tipping sharply in favor of an injunction. Miller, 19 F.3d at 456.

C. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

1. APA Claim – Arbitrary and Capricious

Plaintiff argues that he is likely to succeed on the merits of his APA claim because the government's reliance on unfounded allegations of gang-affiliation is arbitrary, capricious and an abuse of discretion.<sup>5</sup> Dkts. #122 at 20-24 and #130. The Administrative Procedures Act

<sup>5</sup> Because the Court agrees that Defendants' determination is arbitrary and capricious, it does not address Plaintiff's alternative argument that Defendants failed to follow their own procedures in violation of the APA. Dkt. #122 at 24-26. The Court does, however, address Plaintiff's alternate due process argument. Dkt. #122 at 26-30.

1 (“APA”) provides that a court “shall . . . hold unlawful and set aside agency action . . . found to 2 be . . . arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law.” 5
 3 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A). To satisfy this standard, an agency must “examine the relevant data and 4 articulate a satisfactory explanation for its action including a rational connection between the 5 facts found and the choice made.” Encino Motorcars, LLC v. Navarro, 136 S. Ct. 2117, 2125, 6 195 L. Ed. 2d 382 (2016) (quoting Motor Vehicle Mfrs. Ass’n of U.S. v. State Farm Mut. Auto.
 7 Ins. Co., 463 U.S. 29, 43, 103 S. Ct. 2856, 77 L. Ed. 2d 443 (1983)). “[I]f an agency relies on 8 two grounds for a decision, a court may sustain it if one is valid and if the agency would clearly 9 have acted on that ground even if the other were unavailable.” Syracuse Peace Council v. FCC, 10 867 F.2d 654, 657, 276 U.S. App. D.C. 38 (D.C. Cir. 1989). However, because “a reviewing 11 court . . . must judge the propriety of [agency] action solely by the grounds invoked by the 12 agency,” post hoc explanations that the agency did not articulate when it acted are insufficient.
 13 SEC v. Chenery Corp., 332 U.S. 194, 196, 67 S. Ct. 1575, 91 L. Ed. 1995 (1947).

16 Plaintiff argues that the government’s determination that Mr. Ramirez is gang-affiliated 17 is contrary to the administrative record. Dkt. #122 at 20-24. Defendants assert that ICE officers
 18 determined, based on information obtained during his arrest, Mr. Ramirez was “affiliated with a 19 gang” and that his DACA was therefore subject to immediate termination on EPS grounds. See, 20 e.g., Dkt. #90 at 18. However, the administrative record does not support that assertion.
 21 According to the Form I-213, an ICE field agent purportedly determined that Mr. Ramirez “does 22 not qualify” for DACA “due to gang association.” Dkt. #78, Ex. H at 3. That form states:
 23
 24

25 Subject was asked if he is or has been involved with any gang activity.
 26 Subject stated “No not no more”. Subject was questioned further regarding 27 the gang tattoo on his forearm. Subject then stated that he used to hang out 28 with the Sureno’s in California. Subject stated that he fled California to

1 escape from the gangs. Subject stated that he still hangs out with the Paizas
2 in Washington State.<sup>6</sup>

3 Id.

4 These conclusory findings have since been contradicted by experts and other evidence.
5 For example, the arresting officer states that Mr. Ramirez was questioned about his “gang tattoo.”
6 That tattoo consists of the words “La Paz – BCS” and a nautical star. However, as Mr. Ramirez
7 has explained, “La Paz” is his birthplace, “BCS” stands for Baja California Sur (the region in 8 which La Paz is located), and the nautical star is a popular symbol. Dkt. #35-1 at ¶¶ 23-25. Mr.
9 Martin Flores, who has served as a gang expert in more than 700 cases, indicated that he has 10 “never seen a gang member with a similar tattoo nor would [he] attribute this tattoo to have any 11 gang-related meaning.” Dkt. #35-7 at ¶¶ 2 and 11. Defendants have produced no evidence to 12 the contrary.
13

14 Likewise, the conclusions that Mr. Ramirez “used to hang out with the Sureno’s in 15 California,” “fled California to escape from the gangs,” and “still hangs out with the Paizas in 16 Washington State” equally suggest that he had known gang-affiliated individuals. Dkts. #35-8 17 at ¶ 9 and #35-1 at ¶ 22. More importantly, the term “paisa” is simply the shortened form of 18 “paisano” meaning one from the country. Dkt. #35-7 at ¶ 9. In addition, the ICE officer’s
19 conclusion is completely contradictory to the government’s own previous findings after extensive 20 background checks that were meant to uncover evidence of “known or suspected gang 21 association.” See Dkt. #78, Ex. E.
22
23
24
25

26 <sup>6</sup> As this Court has previously recognized, Defendants have submitted two different 1-213 forms,
27 both of which purport to be signed on the same day, by the same person, but the second-filed 28 form omits certain language. See Dkt. #62 at 13:19-14:25. Defendants have acknowledged that there is at least one “visible discrepancy” between the two forms. However, the Court examines the first-filed form and the gang-affiliation findings on which Defendants continue to rely.

1 Most troubling to the Court, is the continued assertion that Mr. Ramirez is gang-affiliated,
2 despite providing no evidence specific to Mr. Ramirez to the Immigration Court in connection
3 with his administrative proceedings, and offering no evidence to this Court to support its 4 assertions four months later. Dkts. #122-1, Ex. D and #129 at 20:20-21:7. Indeed, the 5 Immigration Judge, after reviewing all evidence submitted by respondent, that Mr. Ramirez was 6 credible, and that he was not in a gang or associated with one. Dkt. #124-1.

8 For these reasons, the Court finds that Defendants' continued assertion that Plaintiff is a 9 gang member or gang-affiliated is arbitrary and capricious and in violation of the APA. See, e.g., 10 Abdur-Rahman v. Napolitano, 814 F. Supp. 2d 1098, 1110 (W.D. Wash. 2011) (revocation of 11 approved petition to support noncitizen's permanent resident status was "arbitrary and 12 capricious" where "agency failed to articulate a rational explanation for its decision"). Thus 13 Plaintiff has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits. As a result, the first factor in 14 the preliminary injunction inquiry tips in Plaintiff's favor.
15

16 2. APA Claim – Due Process

17
18 Alternatively, Plaintiff argues that Defendants violated the APA by depriving Plaintiff of 19 his constitutionally protected liberty and property interests without due process of law. Dkt. #122
20 at 26-30. Defendants' only opposition to Plaintiff's argument is that he has failed to demonstrate 21 the necessary prejudice to support the claim. Dkt. #123 at 11. The Court disagrees.

22
23 To assert a due process claim, a plaintiff must first show that he or she has an interest in 24 liberty or property protected by the Constitution. See Bd. of Regents v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564, 569, 25 92 S. Ct. 2701, 33 L. Ed. 2d 548 (1972). As the court noted in Torres v. DHS, 2018 U.S. Dist.
26 LEXIS 62366, *25-26 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 12, 2018):

27 The bedrock principle underlying procedural due process is clear: "Parties 28 whose rights are to be affected are entitled to be heard; and in order that they

1 may enjoy that right they must be notified.” Baldwin v. Hale, 68 U.S. 223, 1
2 Wall 223, 233, 17 L. Ed. 531 (1863). Equally fundamental to the right to 3 notice is the opportunity to be heard at a meaningful time in a meaningful 4 manner. Armstrong v. Manzo, 380 U.S. 545, 552, 85 S. Ct. 1187, 14 L. Ed.
5 2d 62 (1965); Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 332, 96 S. Ct. 893, 47 L.
6 Ed. 2d 18 (1976). When protected liberty or property interests are implicated, 7 the individual is entitled to “some kind of prior hearing” before the 8 termination of such interests. Board of Regent of State Colleges v. Roth, 408
9 U.S. 564, 92 S. Ct. 2701, 33 L. Ed. 2d 548, (1972).

2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 62366, at *25-26.

10 In this case, the Court is unpersuaded by Defendants’ argument that Plaintiff’s claim fails
11 due to the failure to demonstrate prejudice. The Napolitano Memo provides five criteria that 12 must be satisfied before an illegal immigrant qualifies to obtain DACA status – 1) entered the 13 United States before their 16th birthday and prior to June 2007; 2) lived continuously in the 14 United States during the previous five years; 3) was currently in school, a high school graduate 15 or was honorably discharged from the military; 4) was under the age of 31 as of June 15, 2012; 16 and 5) have not been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, three or more 17 misdemeanors, nor posed a threat to national or public safety. As the Torres court found, “[o]nce 18 these objective and non-discretionary criteria are satisfied, the DACA recipient enjoys significant 19 liberty and property interests, including the right to obtain lawful employment authorization and 20 the right to be considered lawfully present in the United States.” 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 62366,
21 *25-26. Here, Defendants’ determination that Plaintiff is in a gang or gang-affiliated, without 22 supporting evidence, and their admission that Plaintiff’s DACA status will be terminated for that 23 reason, implicates Plaintiff’s right to an opportunity to be heard in a “meaningful manner.” See
24 Dkt. #129 at 20:7-12 (“THE COURT: Let me ask you this: Is the plaintiff correct that by filing
25 the notice to terminate, that you intend to once again rely on the allegations that Mr. Ramirez is 26 a gang member, has associated with gang members, and therefore needs to have that DACA
27
28

1 status terminated? MR. ROBINS: Essentially, yes, Your Honor.”). Thus Plaintiff has
2 demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits on this claim as well. As a result, the first
3 factor in the preliminary injunction inquiry tips in Plaintiff's favor.

4 D. Irreparable Harm

5 Turning to the issue of irreparable harm, the Court rejects Defendants’ arguments that 6 Plaintiff cannot demonstrate this element of the preliminary injunction test. Dkt. #123 at 4-7.
7 The Ninth Circuit has held that “loss of opportunity to pursue [one’s] chosen profession”
8 constitutes irreparable harm. Enyart v. National Conference of Bar Exam'rs, Inc., 630 F.3d 1153, 9 1165 (9th Cir. 2011); see also Cleveland Bd. of Educ. v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532, 543, 105 S.
10 Ct. 1487, 84 L. Ed. 2d 494 (1985) (“We have frequently recognized the severity of depriving a 11 person of the means of livelihood.”). Moreover, the Ninth Circuit has specifically found 12 irreparable harm in a similar case involving DACA recipients. See Arizona Dream Act Coal. v.
13 Brewer, 757 F.3d 1053, 1068 (9th Cir. 2014) (finding irreparable harm where professional 14 opportunities are limited). Furthermore, Mr. Ramirez has demonstrated that his earnings are used 15 to support his family, Dkt. #35-1 at ¶¶ 8, 10 and 29, which also suggests irreparable harm. See
16 Torres v. DHS, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 161406 at *19 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 29, 2017) (“The potential
17 harm caused by Defendants’ conduct includes the loss of employment, a core benefit under 18 DACA. The deprivation of employment impacts Plaintiff’s ability to financially provide for 19 himself and his family.”).

20 Defendants also argue undue delay in seeking an injunction. Dkt. #123 at 4-5. Plaintiff
21 demonstrates ongoing efforts to challenge Defendants’ actions, and his litigation strategy has 22 evolved as his situation has unfolded, and there is no indication that the timing of his motion is 23 in bad faith.
25
26
27
28

1 Accordingly, the Court finds that Plaintiff has demonstrated irreparable harm, and that 2 factor weighs in favor of an injunction.

3 E. Balance of Hardships and Public Interest

4 The remaining two factors – balance of hardships and the public interest – merge when,
5 as here, the government is the opposing party. See Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 435, 129 S.
6 Ct. 1749, 173 L. Ed. 2d 550 (2009).

8 The Court acknowledges that there is a strong interest to be found in the effective and 9 efficient enforcement of the nation’s immigration laws, as Defendants assert in this case. Dkt.
10 #123 at 12. However, the Court should not conclude that this interest outweighs the ongoing 11 harm that Plaintiff is experiencing as a result of losing his DACA and EAD, especially when he 12 has received DACA benefits twice, there is no demonstrable evidence that he is of particular risk, 13 and there are several nationwide injunctions preventing the wind down of DACA.

15 Furthermore, public interest exists in ensuring that the government complies with its 16 obligations under the law and follows its own procedures. Melendres v. Arpaio, 695 F.3d 990,
17 1002 (9th Cir. 2012) (“[I]t is always in the public interest to prevent the violation of a party’s 18 constitutional rights.”).

19
20 IV. CONCLUSION

21 Having reviewed Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction, the opposition thereto and 22 reply in support thereof, along with the Declarations and exhibits, supplemental briefing, and the 23 remainder of the record, the Court hereby finds and ORDERS:

- 24
25 1. Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction (Dkt. #122) is GRANTED.

1 2. Defendants shall not terminate Plaintiff's DACA status and work authorization
2 pending a final decision by this Court on the merits of his claims.<sup>7</sup>

3 3. Defendant USCIS is ENJOINED from asserting, adopting, or relying in any 4 proceedings on any statement or record made as of this date purporting to allege or 5 establish that Mr. Ramirez is a gang member, gang affiliated, or a threat to public 6 safety.

25 <sup>7</sup> Defendants rely on an Order from the United States District Court for the Southern District of 26 California for their assertion that enjoining the termination of Plaintiff's DACA status and work
27 authorization pending a decision on the merits of his claims is improper. See Dkt. #131-1.
28 However, the procedural posture of that case was much different. In that case, the District Court determined that such an injunction was unnecessary because of the timing of the request to modify the injunction. Id. In the instant matter, Plaintiff's DACA status expires today, May 15, 2018.
